

Private Security Officer Class "D" (unarmed)

Monday-Thursday, 5Pm-10:00Pm (June 12th-22nd, 2017) (40 Hour Course)
Location: Withlacoochee Technical College 200 Building
Cost is $200.00

Prerequisites/Entry Requirements: 18 yrs. of age; US citizen or legal Resident of the US; mentally competent; good moral character. No Felony or Domestic Violence Convictions.

Course Outline:

- Understand the requirements of Chapter 493, F.S., & 5N-1, F.A.C., regulating the private security industry in Florida. Understand Chapter 776, F.S., & the legal authority & liability for security actions involving the use of force.
- Understand basic first aid
- Understand how to implement emergency procedures
- Understand the importance of ethics & professional conduct
- Demonstrate interviewing techniques
- Understand & verbalize why security duties regarding fire detection, suppression, & life safety are important
- Understand crime/accident scene protection & why it is important
- Identify entrepreneurship opportunities in the private security industry
- Demonstrate employability skills in the private security industry
- Identify terrorists' events & the appropriate response for each
- Understand the importance of public & interagency relations
- Explain the importance of proper courtroom procedures
- Understand the fundamentals of personal security
- Demonstrate interpersonal communication skills, & professional communication skills
- Understand traffic control techniques & identify crowd control techniques
- Identify special problems for security & define terrorism & identify types of terrorists groups

The student must achieve a minimum score of 75% on all examinations.
All examinations and instructors are approved and licensed by the State of Florida.

Industry certification/licensures associated with this program: this program meets the State of Florida requirements for Class "D" Unarmed Security Officer as outlined in Florida Administrative Code 5N-1.140. A Class "D" license must be held by the individual prior to obtaining a Class "G" Armed license.

Register online at www.wtcollege.org For additional Information contact Ed Gough at 352-726-2430 ext. 4376